Congratulations to Kasey Buckles, Stuart Greene and Jason Ruiz

The Joyce Awards, also established in 2007, are supported by a gift from the late Father Joyce's classmates of Notre Dame's Class of 1937. They honor faculty members who have had a profound influence on undergraduate students through sustained exemplary teaching, and, in particular, recognize professors who create environments that stimulate significant student learning, elevate students to a new level of intellectual engagement and foster students' ability to express themselves effectively within their disciplines.

The Joyce Award recipients for the 2015-2016 academic year include:

- Kasey Buckles, economics.
- Stuart Greene, English.
- Jason Ruiz, American studies.

In order to advance the program’s commitment to inter-disciplinary research and inquiry into the subject of gender, the Gender Studies Program is pleased to announce an upcoming series of research workshops. The events will include presentations by advanced undergraduates majoring in Gender Studies as well as graduate students and faculty members from a variety of departments who work in the area of gender and sexuality. The workshop will begin with the week’s presenter giving a brief lecture on his or her current research in the field, followed by a seminar-style discussion.

Workshops are held on Thursdays from 4:00pm – 5:00 pm in 339 O'Shaughnessy.

If you would like to reserve a date for a presentation at one of the Research Workshops please contact one of our Research Workshop coordinators: Jeremy Davidheiser or Marjorie Housley.
